Former Mayor Walter Ashley Buried Sunday In Port Mayaca

Funeral services were held 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at First Baptist Church for Walter Ashley, 59, who was accidentally killed Thanksgiving day while on a hunting party in the Big Cypress.

Pastor Rev. C. H. Elland conducted the service and was assisted by former pastor Rev. U. W. Malcom, a close friend of Ashley's, and Rev. W. R. Boland, pastor of Community Methodist Church.

Ashley was a native of Dunn Louisiana, and had been a resident of Belle Glade for 37 years. He was a member of the Elks Lodge and WOW.

Friends, old and new, expressed shock and grief in the death of Ashley who had operated a garage and jeep sales business here for over 35 years and served as a city commissioner for six years, with two terms as Mayor.

Ironically, Ashley had only recently sold his business and had told many of his friends "Now I can go and enjoy myself with no worries — stay as long as I want to."

The Thanksgiving hunting trip had become an annual event for three couples who owned a cottage in the woods, Mr. and Mrs. Ashley, Chief Charles Goodlett, his wife Imogene, and Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow McGowan of Miami.

Mrs. Ashley had foregone the trip this year to be with her family and Mr. Ashley's daughter, Irene, here for the holidays.

Ashley, who had awakened early, had gone out alone to a pre-arranged blind, eager to begin the hunt. The other members of the party were still in camp when the distress signal was heard about 6:15 a. m., Chief Goodlett reported.

Heading toward the blind, which was several miles from camp, Goodlett met two North Fort Myers hunters, John Henry Long, 32, and Jack Ralph Spearling, 34, who reported the accident and death of a man.

On reaching the scene of the accident Ashley was found

It was believed, Fire Chief Cecil Bair reported, that the two victims who were found on the floor of the room after firemen had the blaze under control, had attempted to crawl to safety.

The fire apparently was caused by an over-filled two-burner kerosene stove, the Chief said, in a room occupied by a blind resident, Ois Griffin, 53. Griffin was led to safety by Lucinda King, 54, with the assistance of Patrolman Dan Bythwood.

According to Detective William Love, the fire in the Griffin room was discovered by Jasper Tolls, who also lived at the rooming house.

That's what they say. And it's certainly true when the small packages are diamonds from ArtCarved. Maybe ArtCarved inspired this "old saying." After all, they've been known for fine jewelry craftsmanship since 1850. Sayings aside, ArtCarved diamond jewelry is a magnificent gift for that very special occasion. It can even create an ultimate expression of loving diamond beauty and imaginative setting. And our ArtCarved diamond jewelry begins at surprisingly modest prices. We'll even put it in a big package if you don't believe in old sayings.

Public To Be Informed
On NCC's Work At Assembly

Visitors to the National Council of Churches' seventh General Assembly, scheduled Dec. 4-9 in Miami Beach, may bring questions and comments about the Council's work to headquarters Hotel Fontainebleau, where informed NCC staff members will be available.

From 9:00 a. m. to 10:00 p. m. daily throughout Assembly week, at least one National Council executive together with a staff member of the Department of Information, will hold "open house" in the North Room on the mezzanine floor for visitors seeking clarification or interpretation of NCC policy statements, programs and goals.

"The Visitors Information Center at the Assembly is designed to provide a platform for comments as well as a channel for questions," says Fletcher Coates, NCC director of information. "This will be the time and the place to discover once and for all whether numerous rumors about the National Council of Churches are true, false - or a little of both."

Mr. Coates cited a number of questions frequently asked about the Council: Does it speak for 42 million church members? Where does it really stand on the war in Viet Nam? Should the churches

Meditations Cristianas.

Por el Rev. Cesar M. Benitez.

Encontramos muchos pasajes en el Antiguo Testamento con la profecía del advenimiento de El Mesias. En los cuatro Evangelios tenemos la historia del nacimiento de Jesucristo, El Hijo de Dios.

Es por su venida en la primera Navidad que hoy celebramos su nacimiento. Pero su advenimiento es mas que eso: significa la revelacion de Dios al mundo, especialmente al hombre. Es el regalo de nuestro Padre Celestial "para que todo aquel que en El crea no se pierda mas tenga vida eterna." Su venida significa salir de las tinieblas para entrar en la luz. Cuando Cristo vino al mundo una nueva luz espiritual entro en los anales de la historia y penetro en el corazon del hombre.

Para muchos Glade nacio en la historia, esto es importante pero lo de mas valioso es el nacio en tu corazon. Podemos decir que Cristo nacio en cada uno de nosotros, lo amo y le sirvo como mi Rey Gobernador.

El problema del mundo es moral, decimos mas claro es espiritual. Jamas la carne salvara al espiritu, el alma no podra alimentarse de la materia.

Dios nos envia nuevas de gran gozo a este mundo, para ayudar a todos y entrar en la Luz. Te estas ayudando a ti? Has recibido su mensaje? Meditemos.

Many young men who find themselves in trouble come from homes where God is neither spoken of or loved. Sister Gertrude Marie, O. L. V. M., gave an interesting demonstration on the use of visual aids (pictures, chalk board, etc.) in teaching religion. She showed how helpful

BIG TWO GOLFERS — Arnold Palmer is shown watching his partner, Jack Nicklaus stroke at the PGA National Golf Club, site of the $275,000 PGA National Team Championships which opens Dec. 3. Palmer and Nicklaus, two of golf's top golfers, will be one of the favored teams going for the first prize of $50,000.

BIG SHOW

Always eager to explore new aquatic territory, modern skindivers are currently fascinated with an unusual area in the Coral Sea off the northeast coast of Australia. This area, called the Great Barrier Reef, comprises 1,250 miles of spectacular coral gardens and rare marine life. It is the largest coral formation in the world.

PGA National Golf Tourney Opens Sat.

—The eyes of the sports world will be on Palm Beach County the week of Dec. 3-10 as the top golf tournament ever staged — the PGA National Team Championships.

More than 160 teams have signed up for this great sports event, and local civic leaders are combining their talents to form one of the largest gatherings ever seen at a local sports event.

Local amateur golfers get a golden opportunity play with the pros the weekend before the tournament. The $15,000 prize-in scheduled for Saturday and Sunday on both the East and West Courses at the PGA National Golf Club in Palm Beach Gardens.

Prizes will be awarded the winners on both courses both days. Tournament Director Lou Strong announced and then there will be an overall winner. Honorary Tournament chairman, Perry Como will be playing with Arnold Palmer in the Pro-Am. Former Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano has entered and will play with Palm Beach Lakes Pro, Allie Russo.

Two baseball greats will also play. Jack Sanford, pitcher for the Los Angeles Angels and Ken Johnson, pitcher for the Atlanta Braves, have also filed entries.

The tournament became the richest in the world last week when John D. MacArthur, President of Bankers Life & Casualty Co., and the PGA Tournament Bureau, each contributed $75,000 apiece to raise the purse from $125,000 to $275,000.

The prize breakdown includes 60 teams of winning money, ranging from the first place $50,000 down to the 60th place prize of $500.

The pros will be playing both courses the first two days of the tournament and then the final days on the East Course.

First Week Successful For Hunters

WEST PALM BEACH — Hunter success was estimated as good during the first week of the 1966-67 hunting season in the Everglades Region, according to W. T. McBreton, Commissioner for the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission.

McBreton stated, "Although the vast Everglades Wildlife Management Area and a portion of land north of Conservation Area 2 is closed the taking of deer and hogs for this hunting season, sportsmen managed to find other areas within the region to hunt and achieved average success on deer kills."

During the first nine days of hunting, an estimated total of 80 deer and 14 hogs were harvested from the area north of Conservation Area 3 and east of the Miami Canal and the area northwest of Conservation Area 2, known as the Brown's Farm Area.

Reports from the wildlife management area for the first nine days are as follows: J. W. Corbett Area — 23 deer, 16 turkey, 90 quail, 5 dove, 95 hogs and 150 snipe. Aerojet Management Area — 10 deer.

Actual and estimated kill figures are not available from other sections because check stations are not maintained except on major game areas. However, reports from wildlife officers and hunters indicate hunting success being very good in the Big Cypress and other areas of the Everglades Region.

Hog Island Development Plan Studied

Okeechobee County officials last week are reviewing a tentative legal agreement required for the development of nearby Hog Island as a major recreational area.

The contract must be approved by county commissioners and the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District Governing Board. Hog Island, at the confluence of the Kissimmee River and Lake Okeechobee, is owned by the FCD and Okeechobee County.

Plans call for the creation of a full service concession on the 78 acre island by private enterprise, a successful method of recreational development employed at several other sites within FCD borders.

Under FCD requirements, successful bidders on major recreation sites must provide free boat launching, drinking water, picnic area, parking space and sanitary facilities.

The agreement, including any changes made by the commission, will be considered by the FCD Governing Board, probably at a public meeting at West Palm Beach December 9.

Approval of both governmental bodies is necessary before bids will be requested to develop the recreational area.

Long-range plans for Hog Island, drawn by the FCD, would provide a camping area for tents and trailers, playgrounds, a marina and nature trails.

A concession building, along with the required picnic grounds, boat ramps, and parking lot, will be among initial developments. Concessionaires sell boats and motors, fishing and hunting equipment and refreshments, and provide rental boats and motors.

Symphony Will Feature Young Cellist

The eighth season of the Symphony Orchestra of the Palm Beaches will open Saturday at 8:30 p. m. in the Palm Beach High School Auditorium with Frank H. Dooley conducting. The concert is free to the public.

Soloist with the orchestra will be the Dorian Rudnytsky, brilliant 21-year old cellist, now at Juillard School of Music in New York City, studying cello with the world-famous Maurice Eisenberg.

His teachers previously were Elia Hilger, at the Philadelphia Conservatory and, the late Luigi Silva, and Zora Neusova, at Juillard's Preparatory Division. Rudnytsky was one of the two young American cellists granted in 1964, and again in 1965, full scholarship to the Summer Master Courses in Casals, Estoril, Portugal. He was a member of the All Eastern Symphony in high school.

Four Local Gridders Are on All-Area Team

Four Belle Glade gridders were named to the All-Area football team selected annually by the Palm Beach Post-Times.

Charles Haynes, Lake Shore quarterback, and Charles Walker, Bobcat end, were named to the first offensive team. Making the defensive unit were Julio Perez and Bryant Davis of the Belle Glade Rams.

Davis who was a standout performer as an offensive end was a repeater on the defensive unit as the deep back choice. He was the only local youth to repeat on the team.

Willie McKelton, standout Pabokee back, was also named to the offensive first team. Larry Norman, Ram tackle, was named to the second team offensive unit, while Martin Holloway, end, Harold Jackson, tackle, and Tim Gillis, linebacker, all of Pabokee were named to the second defensive unit.

McGrady of Lake Shore was named to the offensive unit end and Zane Miller and Middle Guard Gerald Watson of the Rams were named to the defensive unit.

Area gridders making the distinguished mention list include Eldridge Kinsault, tackle, Pabokee; Jon Beely, halfback, Lake Shore; and Jerry Pennington, quarterback, Pabokee.

Wrestling Friday Night At Armory

The Infernos will face Jose Lothario and Sileto Rodriguez in a grudge rematch Friday night at the Belle Glade Armory at 8 p. m.

While the Infernos will be battling on the mat, their manager, J. C. Dykes, will be handcuffed to Sam Steamboat to prevent a recurrence of last week's near riot. The handcuffing is being done to prevent interference by Dykes as he did last week, the promoter stated.

"I'm waiting, for Dykes to make one, just one move — I'll have his hide," Steamboat said.

Also on the card for Friday night, the famed Indian, Chief Crazy Horse, in all his tribal regalia, enters the ring as a warrior of by-gone days to take on the powerful 6-4, 291-pound Crusher Karlson.

Dennis Hall goes against the Masked Mummy in the final match.

Unique Evening In Theatre Set At Junior College

A unique evening in the theater, described by one actor as "more of an experience than a play," will be presented at Palm Beach Junior College Friday and Saturday at 8:14 p. m.

"Demon in My View," by the Readers' Theater, free of charge to the public, with a special high school preview, Thursday, it turning out to be "even more effective than we dared hope," according to Josh Crane, director.

A wedding of the prose and poetry of Edgar Allan Poe, one of the most dramatic writers of all time, with modern sound and visual effects. "Demon in My View" presents many of the best-known Poe works in full, or in carefully edited selection.

"Poe achieved his dramatic effects through the suggestive power of the words he used," Crane says, "and attempts to make full plays must fight a constant tendency to become grotesque."

"But Readers' Theater," where the actor must express with the voice and face alone seemed an ideal way of presenting Poe.

Attempting to heighten the mood and setting for his readers, Crane asked a student, Robert Burkhardt, to work on sound effects.

"Bob has everything—from the swish of the pendulum to the sound of a bottle opening for 'The Cask of Amontillado'—Crane says. "He brought in his own equipment so we could have multi-directional sound."

"Some of the modern electronic music turns out to be just right as background for Poe."

Visually, a Linnebach projector, which throws a giant 30 by 14-foot image on a screen will be used to project blurred and suggestive backgrounds.

The Farm Front

By Doyle Conner

Southern-fried chicken has long been a favorite dish with those who visit our state as well as with those of us who reside here. This is a well-proven fact since Florida consumes more chicken than any other state in the nation.

This was again brought to my attention very vividly as I was glancing over the Division of Inspection's report for the biennium which ended June 30, 1966. The total per capita consumption of poultry in the United States for that two-year period was 40.8 pounds while we in this state consumed 47.2 pounds per capita. We have led the nation for several years now.

With this well above the average consumption of poultry, one might conclude that Florida is among the top poultry-producing states in America. Unfortunately, this is not the case at all, but the picture for the most part is getting brighter.

Florida jumped from 35th place in 1950 to 12th place last year in non-broiler production. We were 37th in the turkey production in 1950 and 35th last year. Ranked 39th in egg production in 1950, we moved up to 14th place by the end of 1965. Our weak point was in broiler production. We were 19th in 1950 but dropped to 21st place last year.

There appears to be a good possibility that Florida will move up one rank in broilers and in non-broilers by the end of this year, according to Dr. Ralph A. Eastwood, marketing specialist with the University of Florida's Agricultural Extension Service.

A recent article in the Wall Street Journal disclosed that 25 percent of General Foods Corp.'s sales currently comes from most of the new products introduced in a decade ago, and most of these have been developed since 1960.

General Mills, Inc., placed 19 new products on the market last year. This compared with 11 in 1964 and 4 in 1960. The article also pointed out that within the past two years the H. J. Heinz Co. has marketed more than 20 new items and has 30 more under development.

Buyers for Grand Union stores were offered 3,160 new items last year by producers and processors, according to the Wall Street Journal. The paper said the stores rejected more than 80 per cent of the items, but the 721 accepted more than offset the number of products dropped by the retail outlets.

At the shelf space becomes critical, a number of food stores may find it necessary to drop most of the hardware, sundry and other non-food items, even though they carry a larger margin of profit. The customer's demand for new food products is said to be generally high, especially if major advertising campaigns are used and more conveniences are built in.

Ranchers and farmers who brand their livestock should investigate the technique of freeze-branding before resorting again to the conventional method of hot-branding.

Freeze-branding is said to be just as effective as burning the animal's skin, yet it causes little or no pain. It's done with a super-chilled instrument which, when applied, produces a swollen and reddish area for about 24 to 48 hours. White hair eventually will grow in the shape of the brand and may be seen from a distance of at least three feet.

Not only does freeze-branding lessen the chances for infection, it also causes little or no damage to the hide.

The United States Department of Agriculture began its annual agricultural information survey the latter part of November and will continue it throughout the first week of December.

Before the survey has been completed, more than half-a-million farmers will be requested to supply data about livestock, poultry and eggs, crops, farm labor, land, water, and land in farms. The information gained from farm visits and mailed questionnaires will be analyzed by the USDA's Crop Reporting Board in Washington, D. C.

Composite information on all aspects of the survey, with special emphasis on livestock, will be published on a state and national basis for use by farmers and agribusinessmen. The survey takes on added significance this year because of the reductions in the year-end carryovers of food stocks and rising food demands from abroad.

Pahokee Wins Cup

The Bill Young Memorial Trophy is taking a one-year vacation. It had almost found a permanent home in the trophy case at the entrance to BGHS. But Wednesday night Pahokee's Blue Devils, bolstered by a host of transfers from East Lake High, rolled to a 13-0 win over the Golden Rams.

It had been a long dry spell for the Blue Devils. Not since 1958 had Pahokee beaten the Rams. Since then the Rams had won five times and tied once to run their lead in the rivalry to 13-3.

Playing before an estimated 6,000 fans, the Devils scored their first touchdown in the third quarter when Marvin Holloway recovered a fumble on the Rams' 41 and raced in for the score. Jerry Peacock split the uprights making it 7-0. Jerry Peacock added the final touchdown with 10 seconds remaining in the game on a 2-yard run. The conversion attempt was blocked.

Making their final appearance Wednesday night were Seniors Mickey McGabre, Tommy Woods, Danny Davis, Ronnie Gerry, Jose Ortiz, Pat Bowen, Steve Kirchman, Zane Miller, Wendell Wells, Herbert Giese, Larry Norman, Charles Ruff and Bryant Davis.

The Golden Rams ended the season with a 4-2 in conference play and 5-5 overall.

RAMS Begin Cage Season With 'Cats

The opening game for the basketball season will be against the Palm Beach Wildcats in the Belle Glade High Gym. The game will take place on Tuesday, December 6.

This year's senior players are Bryant Davis and Carlos Vailia. Davis stands 6' 1" and Vailia 6' 2". Other players include Quen Wilson who averaged 11 points a game last season, Eddie McAllister the big man of the team will be working in the rebound department. Also there is Terry Mann, who is a very good candidate this year for a considerable amount of action. Enrique Rionda, Ronnie Ratliff will also be hustling for the team.

The Rams are going to be hard pressed to compete with the 17-7 record of last season.

FTA'ers Attend Convention

Attending the Florida Association of the Future Teacher's of America convention in Clearwater November 18-20 were Jane Zumpf, Dora Willis and Marilyn Stokes. Marilyn, a Junior, ran for the office of state vice-president and had as her campaign manager Jane, President of the local club, Chaperone for the trip was Mrs. Laaksonen.

After arriving Thursday night the girls immediately began campaigning for the Palm Beach County candidates for the state offices.

Marilyn's opponent was one of the few boys who tried for an office. Of course, all the girls were for him and campaign for their candidate. Yet, Marilyn only lost by the small sum of a mere 10 votes.

Friday night a banquet was held at the hotel where the candidates gave their speeches. A luncheon was held Saturday afternoon to announce the winners. The girls arrived home late Saturday night.

Says Ewe

"Shoot yeah, man," what happened to you during fourth period last Wednesday while you were demonstrating your football techniques? I heard it really "tore" you up!

Alice Chisholm, it seems that you have had a little trouble explaining posters in Modern Family Living class. What's the matter, Alice?

Hey, Humanities students, did the Bird of Paradise land on your pencil during the test? Bless you, my children.

Marie Snow, what is this sudden interest in Perry, Florida? Could it be mail or male?

Alison C. Did you enjoy your stay in the hospital last weekend? I heard the food was real good!

District Parameds Elect Officers

Cynthia Thiebaud was chosen to run for president-elect and Brenda Buckner for state treasurer by the District "D" Paramedics at a November 19th Convention. The B. G. Paramedic's scrap book won first place, too!

The District "D" Paramedic Clubs had their annual meeting at Palm Beach High School on November 19, from 9:00 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. Seventeen members of the Paramedic club attended the convention.

The main speaker was Dr. Bernard Kimmel who spoke on cancer and cancer research. However main business of the day was the campaign and election of new district officers and candidates for state officers.

After the results were announced, the new district officers were installed and the meeting was dismissed.

Randy L., what's all the business about you and this eggplant? Could it be you are after the fruits of life now?

Pat S., we have decided to leave the Rampage named the Rampage. I understand you like to have it named the "Fletcher Park".

Ronnie G., I understand you looked like a scarecrow the other night. What was your motive in dressing like this and trying to scare people?

Double W., I also understand you are reading those immoral books by Ovid again. Mr. Lowry, how about a review?

Martha G., Don't you know better than to run down the street in your pajamas. The wreck couldn't possibly be that bad!

Jeanie A., we heard you were the only American at a party Saturday night. We wonder why.

Sue G., what more could we expect — first the hayride, then the airplane ride and best of all the honor of meeting King Sam from Siam.

Alice H., it must be nice to get real roses by mail. How is it done?

Linda Hood, why have you been beaming so lately? It won't be long now!

Terry L. and Billy K., we're glad to see that you two made up. The argument wasn't really worth it, was it?

Counselor Gives Lecture To F. H. A. Members

On Thursday afternoon, November 17, the Future Homemakers of America invited Mr. C. G. Black, our guidance coordinator, in to talk with us on "The parallel between the values of High School Education compared with the school dropout as they become involved in the world of work." He showed us a film entitled, "Expressway or Deadend Street."

The film showed us the importance of having a High School Education. Without an education there aren't any decent jobs available. He also emphasized the type of jobs one could engage in with a high school education.

The following are some of the jobs that requires a high school education: telephone operators, mechanics, computers and many other jobs.

The lecture as well as the film was enjoyed by all.

Patience Plus—

We, the students of the Driver Education class, would like to congratulate Mr. Ollice Davis, our instructor, for having patience plus. We say Mr. Davis has patience plus because he displays a surplus of patience with us while we are driving. For most of us, it is our first attempt at driving so naturally we make mistakes . . . signaling properly, running stop signs, pressing the accelerator instead of the brake and many other hair-raising problems. Even though Mr. Davis is constantly confronted with these problems he is always patient. Again we say, congratulations!!

THE YEARBOOK STAFF NEEDS You

Complaints From The Editor

We are told there are organizations around the campus, but are there really? It would be hard to believe there is because none of them seem to be functioning.

Our Student Council has really let us down. We want to know . . .

1. Why haven't there been dances after the football games?
2. Why haven't there been more night-time activities to help keep the school kids off the street?

3. What happened to the reports that are supposed to be given to each homecoming after a meeting of the Student Council?

4. Why isn't there more news in the Bobcat Page concerning the Student Council? Does the Student Council still exist? If it does, I'm from Missouri, therefore; show me. But the student council isn't the only organization that hasn't been functioning. Why haven't the Agriculture boys begun to beautify our campus? Why haven't the Masonry boys finished the event board in front of the school?

What ever happened to the Future Teachers of America? Science Club? Dramatics Club and Spanish Club? If you are still with us let us know by getting to work and stop lying down on the job.

The following organizations have been doing a good job: The Girl Scouts. The D. C. T. The F. H. A.

Keep up the good work. Editor in Chief Joe Sheely

Federal Land Banks Association Plan 50th Anniversary Observance

MIAMI — The Federal Land Bank Association of Miami, along with 706 other associations having a total membership of some 388,000 farmers, growers, and ranchers across the country, will help the job of "speaking up" for U. S. agriculture during 1967.

Mr. Long, manager of the Miami association, returned this week from a conference in Tampa, where plans were reviewed for the coming 50th Anniversary of The Federal Land Bank of Columbia. The observance will pay tribute to "America's Farmers: Providers of Plenty" and it will be paralleled by similar programs in the 11 other Land Bank districts throughout the United States and Puerto Rico.

Highlights of the anniversary year in the Columbia Land bank district of North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida will include a district-wide meeting at Miami, annual meetings of the 46 local associations, open house events introduction of new land bank film, and many others.

On a continuing basis through the year, associations in the Columbia district will support a public informational program calling attention to the contributions farmers, growers, and ranchers are making to help keep food prices down and production up.

"Farmers are entitled to an opportunity to 'speak their piece' for a change," Mr. Long said, "especially now, when there is a great deal of talk about inflation. The fact is that farmers today are losers, must pay more for what they buy each year but they are receiving very little more for what they sell than they did 15 years ago."

It is a known fact that on the average, one farmer today produces food for 33 people compared with 15 in the early 1950s, Mr. Long said, and the key word for what is taking place on farms today is "efficiency." The Land Banks aim to "translate" this efficiency into terms of personal meaning for non-farm segments of the U. S. Public, he said.

"All Americans are concerned with rising living costs today," Mr. Long continued, "so this is the right time to set a lot of records straight as far as the farmer is involved."

"Consumers should know, for example, that the farmer receives only about 4 cents for the wheat he provides in a 25-cent pound loaf of white bread; 2.7 cents as his share of a box of corn flakes retailing for 30 cents; 26 cents for the cotton he provides in a shirt retailing for $4.99; and that the heavily capitalized agricultural business had only a 2.8 percent return on investment last year compared with 12.9 percent for leading U. S. corporations.

"As the farmer-owned Land Banks have been a major source of long-term agricultural credit for the past 50 years," Mr. Long concluded, "we feel it is a worthy objective of our Golden Anniversary observance to document the true contributions America's farmers make to the highest standard of living in the world which our nation enjoys."

What'd you expect us to put our Overhead Cam Six in?

An ordinary car?

Our revolutionary 165-hp OHC 6 is so revolutionary we had to do something special with it. So we made it standard in all Tempests and Le Mans.

You see, it was inspired by those famous overhead cam engines of the European sports cars. With a few Pontiac refinements, of course.

That's why it'll keep running and running until somebody turns it off. And with a power reserve for emergency passing you'd normally expect from a V-8.

We even offer a 215-hp version that makes a lot of big V-8s seem awfully extravagant. Which is why we say, with a 6 like this who needs an 8?

Incidentally, a four-way hazard warning flasher, backup lights, and GM's energy absorbing steering column are some of the safety features also standard in all Tempests and Le Mans. So how can you possibly resist seeing you Pontiac dealer right now?
